Church of God in Christ
"A TEMPLE OF DELIVERANCE"

Missionary Phyllis Elliott

Missionary Phyllis Elliott was born and raised in Suffolk, VA by her Auntie Thelma and Uncle Linwood Copeland. While living with her family members she began to regularly attend church services. She admits she was not fully committed to God's Word and did not embrace her Christian upbringing until later in her life; where at the age of 52, she would finally make Jesus her Lord and Savior!

After coming to Christ, she developed a personal relationship with God, and truly lived according to His Word; this led to being delivered from all the bad habits and temptations which previously had her bound.

After gaining some spiritual maturity she believed that in her heart God was calling her to be a Missionary, so she acted on that calling. In 2014 she was licensed a Deaconess Missionary by Mother Dr. Sheary D. Johnson the Jurisdictional Supervisor of the Virginia Fourth Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction of the Church of God in Christ, where Bishop G. Wesley Hardy is the Jurisdictional Prelate.

Today, Missionary Elliott continues to support her Pastor, Superintendent Donald General Jr. and the members in the church by carrying out the Will of God by telling people her testimony of how her life changed after accepting Jesus as her Savior. She is an active member in Perfecting Saints COGIC. She participates on the Mothers Board, the Artistic Fingers Ministry, and serves as a teacher for our weekly Bible Study classes; additionally Missionary Elliott takes great pride in preparing for Holy Communion on 1st Sundays. Missionary Elliott also visits those who are sick, spending the quality time needed to tend to both their physical and spiritual needs.

Missionary Elliott remains eager to learn more about Jesus Christ, her thirst for a closer relationship with Him causes her not only to read the Bible daily but further her knowledge by looking through Bible commentaries and even reading the Bible dictionary. She is married to Brother Arthur Elliott and they attend services together.

Missionary Elliott has learned that when she prays, God hears and answer her. Her desire is to tell the world about how the one, who changed her life, has the power to change theirs as well!

"I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me." Philippians 4:13
