Church of God in Christ
"A TEMPLE OF DELIVERANCE"

Missionary Suzanne Hollowell
Coordinator, Speak Life Ministries
Military Liaison
Artistic Fingers Ministry

Missionary Suzanne Hollowell was born in Atlanta Georgia to her parents Nancy Sinkfield and Marvin Hollowell. She has two brothers and two sisters. Being born premature, 3 months early with underdeveloped lungs, she is considered a miracle by birth. As a "miracle baby" Suzanne fought to stay alive and still is fighting today as she preaches and teaches the Word of God to people who are "fighting to stay alive". Her mother, the late Nancy Sinkfield, called Suzanne her little angel because when she found out she was pregnant with Suzanne, she also found out that she had cervical cancer, and both survived!

Missionary Suzanne is a graduate of Callaway High School in Hogansville GA. She has earned her Associates in Business Administration from Coastline Community College and is currently pursuing another Associates degree at Tidewater Community College.

Missionary Suzanne currently serves as active-duty Sailor, in the United States Navy. This has allowed her to travel across the world being an example (disciple) of a Child of the Most High God on and off duty. Missionary Suzanne encourages everyone she encounters, to know the importance of not just knowing God, but to have a personal relationship with Him. Encourager is one of her defining qualities, for it is a gift from God.

Missionary Suzanne has been actively in the COGIC community since 2005. Superintendent Gary Watkins Sr. and Teresa Watkins from Greater Saint Luke COGIC in San Diego, CA trained and taught her the foundation of how to be a Christian. She worked under the ministries of one of the members of the Praise and Worship team and choir, Praise Dance Coordinator, President of the GEMS (Godly Empowered Motivated Singles), Women's Department, and Missions Department; whatever she found her hands to do. She relocated to Virginia in 2012 where she became a member at Perfecting Saint COGIC. At Perfecting Saints COGIC Superintendent Donald General Jr. saw her potential and calling on her life and undergirded her from there on. In 2014 she was licensed by the State Women's Department as a Deaconess Missionary.

Suzanne is eager to go higher in the Lord and always welcomes others to come with her.
