Lady Tangie General First Lady, Perfecting Saints COGIC

Lady Tanyeil "Tangie" General, a U.S. Navy veteran, grew up with her four siblings in New Orleans, Louisiana with her parents Alvin and Cheryl O'Neal.

As a youth, Cheryl ensured her five children were brought up to reverence the Lord. Each participated in the local church, Tangie serving as Sunday-School teacher, Praise Dance Leader, on the Missionary Board and Usher Board. In 2009, Lady Tangie was licensed as an Evangelist Missionary in the Church of God in Christ.

Today, as part of the 4th Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction of Virginia she proudly serves as a member of the Jurisdictional Budget Committee. Lady Tangie has been given the awesome responsibility of working with the State Supervisor, Mother Dr. Sheary Johnson, to ensure the Women's Department is fiscally responsible and performs each of its activities within the allocated Jurisdictional Budget. Additionally, Lady Tangie serves as a contributor within the Pastor Wives Circle.

Lady Tangie remains a devoted supporter of her husband; Dr. Don General, while still fulfilling her passion to assist those less fortunate. To that end, Lady Tangie serves as Director of the Community Outreach Ministry for Perfecting Saints COGIC and under her tutelage the church was recognized twice in the last four years as winner of the Hampton Roads Volunteer Achievement Award for the churches consistent non-traditional community involvement. Lady Tangie also serves as a mentor for troubled youth via the Up Center and she works with several other charitable organizations such as the American Diabetes Association, the United Way, the Samaritan House, and the H.E.R. Shelter.

Academically, she has earned an Associate's degree from Saint Leo University, a Bachelors of Arts degree from Averett University, a Master's in Business Administration (MBA) from Liberty University and recently completed her Masters in Journalism from Regent University.
